

The attached document is part of a mass mailing. The number of identical documents as specified in the File Number/City, St. field have been received by the Commission on this same date. You may view the documents at the FCC Reference Information Center, at 445 12th Street, SW, Washington, DC, Room CY-A257.

Michael Barnhouse
1912 S Bedford St
Los Angeles, CA 90034-1308

CitizenLetter

An urgent message from a concerned citizen

RECEIVED & INSPECTED
DEC 26 2007
FCC - MAILROOM

December 12, 2007

FCC Chairman Kevin Martin
FCC
445 12th Street SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear Chairman Martin,

I am writing to urge to curb the corporate takeover of independent media and abandon your plan to relax media-ownership rules (Docket #06-121).

Current FCC regulations limit the number of newspapers, TV and radio stations any one company can own in a particular market. This is one of the few remaining checks on the total monopolization of independent media.

Consumers everywhere rely on independent media for objective news and local information that is important to their lives. It's not in the public interest to strike FCC regulations that prevent the corporate takeover of these independent media.

Who does benefit? Your proposed rules change is primarily in the interest of moguls like Rupert Murdoch, who are looking for a parting gift from the Bush administration as it leaves power.

I urge you to do what is right for consumers, not multinational media corporations, and maintain the FCC rules that preserve independent voices in America. Please tell me how you intend to address this issue.

Sincerely,

Michael Barnhouse

CitizenLetters are a service of CREDO®

Dr. Stephen A Berard
511 Yakima St Apt 7
Wenatchee, WA 98801-2890

CitizenLetter

An urgent message from a concerned citizen.

December 12, 2007

FCC Chairman Kevin Martin
FCC
445 12th Street SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear Chairman Martin,

I am writing to urge to curb the corporate takeover of independent media and abandon your plan to relax media-ownership rules (Docket #06-121).

Current FCC regulations limit the number of newspapers, TV and radio stations any one company can own in a particular market. This is one of the few remaining checks on the total monopolization of independent media.

Consumers everywhere rely on independent media for objective news and local information that is important to their lives. It's not in the public interest to strike FCC regulations that prevent the corporate takeover of these independent media.

Who does benefit? Your proposed rules change is primarily in the interest of moguls like Rupert Murdoch, who are looking for a parting gift from the Bush administration as it leaves power.

I urge you to do what is right for consumers, not multinational media corporations, and maintain the FCC rules that preserve independent voices in America. Please tell me how you intend to address this issue.

Sincerely,

Dr. Stephen A Berard

CitizenLetters are a service of CREDO®

Daniel B Kubal
210 Tamarac Trce
Platteville, WI 53818-1322

CitizenLetter

An urgent message from a concerned citizen.

December 12, 2007

FCC Chairman Kevin Martin
FCC
445 12th Street SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear Chairman Martin,

I am writing to urge to curb the corporate takeover of independent media and abandon your plan to relax media-ownership rules (Docket #06-121).

Current FCC regulations limit the number of newspapers, TV and radio stations any one company can own in a particular market. This is one of the few remaining checks on the total monopolization of independent media.

Consumers everywhere rely on independent media for objective news and local information that is important to their lives. It's not in the public interest to strike FCC regulations that prevent the corporate takeover of these independent media.

Who does benefit? Your proposed rules change is primarily in the interest of moguls like Rupert Murdoch, who are looking for a parting gift from the Bush administration as it leaves power.

I urge you to do what is right for consumers, not multinational media corporations, and maintain the FCC rules that preserve independent voices in America. Please tell me how you intend to address this issue.

Sincerely,

Daniel B Kubal

CitizenLetters are a service of CREDO®

Marjorie Cogan
2324 Minor Ave E
Seattle, WA 98102-3308

CitizenLetter

An urgent message from a concerned citizen

December 12, 2007

FCC Chairman Kevin Martin
FCC
445 12th Street SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear Chairman Martin,

I am writing to urge to curb the corporate takeover of independent media and abandon your plan to relax media-ownership rules (Docket #06-121).

Current FCC regulations limit the number of newspapers, TV and radio stations any one company can own in a particular market. This is one of the few remaining checks on the total monopolization of independent media.

Consumers everywhere rely on independent media for objective news and local information that is important to their lives. It's not in the public interest to strike FCC regulations that prevent the corporate takeover of these independent media.

Who does benefit? Your proposed rules change is primarily in the interest of moguls like Rupert Murdoch, who are looking for a parting gift from the Bush administration as it leaves power.

I urge you to do what is right for consumers, not multinational media corporations, and maintain the FCC rules that preserve independent voices in America. Please tell me how you intend to address this issue.

Sincerely,

Marjorie Cogan

CitizenLetters are a service of CREDO.[®]

Michelle Waide
4842 N Diversey Blvd
Milwaukee, WI 53217-5919

CitizenLetter

An urgent message from a concerned citizen.

December 12, 2007

FCC Chairman Kevin Martin
FCC
445 12th Street SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear Chairman Martin,

I am writing to urge to curb the corporate takeover of independent media and abandon your plan to relax media-ownership rules (Docket #06-121).

Current FCC regulations limit the number of newspapers, TV and radio stations any one company can own in a particular market. This is one of the few remaining checks on the total monopolization of independent media.

Consumers everywhere rely on independent media for objective news and local information that is important to their lives. It's not in the public interest to strike FCC regulations that prevent the corporate takeover of these independent media.

Who does benefit? Your proposed rules change is primarily in the interest of moguls like Rupert Murdoch, who are looking for a parting gift from the Bush administration as it leaves power.

I urge you to do what is right for consumers, not multinational media corporations, and maintain the FCC rules that preserve independent voices in America. Please tell me how you intend to address this issue.

Sincerely,

Michelle Waide

CitizenLetters are a service of CREDO.[®]

Judith Waller
1004 E Pacific St
Appleton, WI 54911-5374

CitizenLetter

An urgent message from a concerned citizen.

December 12, 2007

FCC Chairman Kevin Martin
FCC
445 12th Street SW
Washington, DC 20554

RECEIVED & INSPECTED
DEC 26 2007
FCC - MAILROOM

Dear Chairman Martin,

I am writing to urge to curb the corporate takeover of independent media and abandon your plan to relax media-ownership rules (Docket #06-121).

Current FCC regulations limit the number of newspapers, TV and radio stations any one company can own in a particular market. This is one of the few remaining checks on the total monopolization of independent media.

Consumers everywhere rely on independent media for objective news and local information that is important to their lives. It's not in the public interest to strike FCC regulations that prevent the corporate takeover of these independent media.

Who does benefit? Your proposed rules change is primarily in the interest of moguls like Rupert Murdoch, who are looking for a parting gift from the Bush administration as it leaves power.

I urge you to do what is right for consumers, not multinational media corporations, and maintain the FCC rules that preserve independent voices in America. Please tell me how you intend to address this issue.

Sincerely,

Judith Waller

CitizenLetters are a service of CREDO®