

Dear FCC,

Please protect the use of Pactor III. I use this mode when sailing to download weather data and email. I use Pactor III because it is the only digital mode that will allow me to download large weather charts in a timely manner. This mode works better than any other digital mode and is a tribute to technology. This kind of technology is what Ham radio is all about.