Office of the Secretary

Re: MB Docket No. 07-18

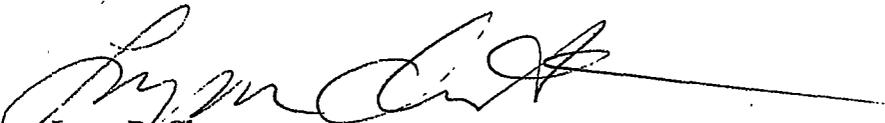

Dear Ms. McIntyre:

On behalf of Liberty Global, Inc., I have enclosed additional information and documents requested by Industry Analysis staff. This material includes highly confidential information, as defined in the FCC's July 20, 2007 Supplemental Protective Order in the above-captioned proceeding.

We accordingly are providing one set of redacted documents, as well as two non-redacted sets which contain the highly confidential material.

Pursuant to the Commission Orders issued in this proceeding, two redacted versions of this material, and one non-redacted set which contains highly confidential material will also be filed today with the Secretary's Office. Should there be any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at (202) 663-6455.

Respectfully submitted,

Lynn R. Charytan

LIBERTY GLOBAL, INC.'S SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION RESPONSES

DECEMBER 20, 2007

On December 14, 2007, the Staff requested additional information from Liberty Global, Inc. ("LGI") about the following topics:

REDACTED – FOR PUBLIC INSPECTION

LGI Board of Directors And Executive Committee. LGI is a publicly-traded Delaware corporation, listed on the Nasdaq, with several thousand shareholders. The governing body of LGI is the Board. All major strategic commercial decisions, including approval of the budget, approval of the business plan, approval of major acquisitions and divestments and the issuance of stock, are decisions that must be made by the LGI Board.

The LGI Board is composed of ten members. Under Nasdaq rules, a majority of the members of the Board must be independent directors. Independence under these rules focuses on independence from the management and therefore on the relationship between the individual director and the company, including commercial, industrial, accounting, consulting, legal, charitable and familial relationships.
