

As an owner of three AM stations since 1976, AM radio is in a crisis for attracting listeners. People do not have any interest in dealing with the interference. AM on FM translators is essential to properly serve the public.