

As a former Comcast broadband subscriber I can attest to what appeared to me to be unfair practices by Comcast in limiting bandwidth traffic. At various times I found applications and online gaming functions crippled or disabled due to dropped connections. Please do not allow communications companies to dictate the internet for users.