

I wholeheartedly agree with the comment below. Our country is subtly becoming like the old Soviet Union with more monitoring of its citizenry coming with each dubious law passed to "prevent" terrorists or some other bogeyman from harming us.

Isn't it enough that these corporations make tons of money off of us already? Now they want to be like the sick voyeur who gets his jollies peeking into the lives of others.

Just leave us the hell alone.

"Comcast's blatant and deceptive blocking of peer-to-peer communications is exactly the problem millions of Americans have warned would occur without Net Neutrality protections.

The FCC must take serious and immediate action to put an abrupt end to this harmful practice and prevent other Internet service providers from following Comcast's example of discriminating against the free flow of online information.

The Internet is a vital engine for economic growth, civic participation and free speech. We simply can't allow corporate gatekeepers to smother these democratic communications by discriminating against new technologies, secretly interfering with Internet traffic and stifling innovation."
