

Regarding comcast censoring and meddling with BitTorrent

I recommend that ISPs like ComCast be considered a common carrier much like a phone company.

Also, by tampering with protocols, ComCast may be tortiously interfering with contractual agreements between BitTorrent and its users. BitTorrent trackers often have rules they enforce, and ISP meddling may provoke violations of those rules.

Please give Network Neutrality the validity it deserves.