

The FCC must take serious and immediate action to put an immediate end to Comcast's blatant and deceptive blocking of peer-to-peer communications, which is exactly what millions of Americans warned would occur without Net Neutrality protections.

This harmful practice needs to be stopped now and the FCC must prevent other Internet service providers from following Comcast's example of discriminating against the free flow of online information.

The Internet is a vital engine for economic growth, civic participation and free speech. We simply can't allow corporate gatekeepers to restrict these democratic communications by discriminating against new technologies, secretly interfering with Internet traffic and stifling innovation.
