Dear FCC:

Simply, this merger would good for both companies and the economy.

It is clearly not a monopoly as the Ipod, all cell phones, the internet and various other media are available to deliver similar content to satellite radio. Not to mention, there is direct competition from AM/FM Radio.

The stock market could use a positive story and the employees and shareholders of both companies would benefit in the long run. I think the government would be better off focusing on other issues.

Sincerely,

Arthur Hardy
