

HOAs should NOT be contractually tied to a Cable provider. For that matter, neither should internet service or alarm system monitoring services. I live in a HOA community where I am paying the cable and Internet provider for services that they do and cannot provide and I am required to pay anyway. I.E. Century Cable's "contract" with Live Oak Preserve, Tampa.