

I am writing as executive director of Hodan Center, Inc. in Mineral Point, Wisconsin. Our Center serves the vocational and day services needs of people with disabilities including many people who have speech disabilities. I am writing today because I support providing training to potential Speech-to-Speech users. I ask that Wisconsin's application for TRS recertification include a comprehensive plan to train a majority of prospective users to use STS.

Sincerely,

Tom Schraeder, Executive Director