Position: Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary

I, Robert Sokota, certify that I am an officer of AboveNet Communications, Inc. ("AboveNet") and acting as an agent of AboveNet, that I have personal knowledge that AboveNet has established operating procedures that are adequate to ensure compliance with the Commission's CPNI rules. See 47 C.F.R. § 64.2001 et seq.

AboveNet has no information outside of Commission Docket No. 96-115, or that is not otherwise publicly available (e.g., through news media), regarding the processes pretexters are using to attempt to access CPNI. Customer Proprietary Network Information Certification Attachment A AboveNet has established practices and procedures adequate to ensure compliance with Section 222 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, ("section 222") and the Federal Communications Commission's ("FCC") rules pertaining to customer proprietary network information ("CPNI") set forth in sections 64.2001 – 64.2011 of the Commission's rules. This attachment summarizes those practices and procedures, which have been updated so that they are adequate to ensure compliance with the Commission's CPNI rules, as modified by the Commission in 2007.

AboveNet provides private telecommunications services over dedicated lines to large enterprise and carrier customers pursuant to ICB contracts. AboveNet's customer contracts uniformly contain confidentiality agreements that address customers' private information. It is AboveNet's policy not to disclose CPNI except as specifically set out in its contracts with its customers and where required by law.

Safeguarding against pretexting

- AboveNet takes reasonable measures to discover and protect against attempts to gain unauthorized access to CPNI, including the authentication of customers prior to disclosing CPNI based on customer-initiated contacts. AboveNet is committed to notify the FCC of any novel or new methods of pretexting it discovers and of any actions it takes against pretexters and data brokers.

Training and discipline

- AboveNet has an express disciplinary process in place for violation of the AboveNet's CPNI practices and procedures. AboveNet employees are required to review and abide by AboveNet's Code of Conduct, which, prohibits all employees from using customer information other than for providing service to the customer or as required to be disclosed by law.
