

I am a working professional that enjoys the freedom of communication. I know of many people that would benefit from STS. I encourage the California Public Utilities Commission to ensure that every potential STS user has as much information about STS as the public has about general telephone use. Doing so is in the spirit of Section 225 of the Telecommunications Act