

Hello my name is Yvette Enos and I am a Library Technician, for the Merced County Library system. I have received calls through the telephone assistance program when patrons are needing some assistance with information. I think its wonderful that those who are having troubles with hearing or speech can use this program to help them find out information or just phone a friend. I think we need more people trained to help out in these programs.

Yvette Enos

Merced County Library