

Sirs/Madams, I believe there should be action taken against Comcast for their actions in the Net Neutrality hearings recently, paying people to fill up the room. There should be no one to be standing in lines even if paid for it, the court system should be treated with respect not as a line to a disneyland ride.