

I am writing to voice my concerns that the current rules being proposed by the FCC not interfere with the free exercise of religion of Christian Broadcasters in the United States especially where program content would be overseen by independent state boards or commissions that have absolutely no understanding of the Evangelical Community in America. It is my further concern that if the rules being proposed by and/or to the FCC are enacted, it would eventually result in legal battles with non-evangelical and/or secular boards, committees --even the FCC. Therefore, I hope you will reconsider enacting any of these regulations without solid conservative input from within the Evangelical Community. Thank you for taking my concerns into consideration.
