

I do not believe that a merger between these two companies should be allowed. The people need to be able to choose. this is very similar to the Direct TV / Dish network merger. XM/Sirius say they are in the same market as general broadcast, but they are not. They are the only ones that allow signal to be recieved coast to coast and into canada. Please do not allow this merger.