

Please don't let Verizon or other companies restrict what can be communicated on their equipment.
What happened to free speech?