Voting Trust – Telephone and Data Systems, Inc.

The Voting Trust holds Series A Common Shares and Special Common Shares in Telephone and Data Systems, Inc. ("TDS") and was created to facilitate long-standing relationships among the trust's certificate holders. Under the terms of the Voting Trust, the Trustees hold and vote the Series A Common Shares and Special Common Shares held in the trust. As of December 31, 2006, the Voting Trust is the direct beneficial owner of (i) TDS Series A Common Shares, which are convertible on a share-for-share basis into TDS Common Shares, and (ii) TDS Special Common Shares.

The Voting Trust holds and the Trustees vote 6,084,381 Series A Common Shares of TDS, representing approximately 94.4% of the outstanding Series A Common Shares. The holders of Series A Common Shares are entitled to elect eight directors of TDS based on a board of twelve directors currently elected by the holders of TDS Series A Common Shares and TDS Preferred Shares. The Series A Common Shares also vote in matters other than the election of directors.

The Voting Trust holds and the Trustees vote 6,072,898 Special Common Shares of TDS, representing approximately 5.5% of the voting power in the election of four of the directors of TDS based on a board of twelve directors currently elected by the holders of TDS Common Shares and TDS Special Common Shares. The TDS Special Common Shares only vote in the election of such directors.

The Series A Common Shares also have ten votes per share in matters other than the election of directors and, accordingly, the Series A Common Shares held by the Voting Trust represent approximately 52.3% of the combined voting power of TDS's total shares that vote in matters other than the election of directors, based on 51,874,608 TDS Common Shares, 6,444,764 Series A Common Shares and 8,627 Preferred Shares issued and outstanding on December 31, 2006. Therefore, the Voting Trust elects a majority of the directors and directs a majority of the combined voting power of TDS in matters other than the election of directors.
