Re: In the Matter of: InterCall, Inc. Appeal of Decision of the Universal Service Administrative Company and Request for Waiver; InterCall, Inc.'s Petition for Stay of the Decision of the Universal Service Administrative Company, CC Docket No. 96-45

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On March 26, 2008, Kathleen Grillo and Chris Miller of Verizon met with Jennifer McKee, Acting Chief of the Division of Telecommunications Access Policy Division ("TAPD") of the Wireline Competition Bureau, Thomas Buckley, Senior Deputy Chief of the TAPD, and Greg Guice and Cindy Spiers of the TAPD. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss InterCall's request for review of the Universal Service Administrative Company's decision requiring InterCall to contribute to the universal service fund ("USF") on its retail audio conferencing revenues and InterCall's related petition for a stay of contributions to the USF pending resolution of its appeal.

During the meeting, Verizon outlined the legal deficiencies with the InterCall appeal and discussed Verizon's opposition to the appeal. Verizon indicated that all teleconferencing providers, including so-called "stand alone" providers, are required to contribute to the USF on their retail teleconferencing revenues. Verizon further discussed why InterCall's audio conferencing service is a telecommunications service under the Act and the Commission's rules and established precedent. The discussion was consistent with Verizon's previous filings in this matter.
