

I support the merger being approved with out restrictions. If I am paying for the service I want to be able to listen to what I want and not a sensored version. If I am with my children or someone who would be offended by my listening then I can either change to a different satelite channel or listen to terrestrial radio. There is no anti-trust, anti-competitiveness in this merger.