

In my opinion it is vital to a free nation to have independent news sources. I feel that our present news organizations too often present the news with a bias representing their own opinions on politics and other subjects and it is becoming more and more difficult to find truly independent and factual news.