Dear FCC:

Another day and no merger between XM and Sirius. This is becoming ridiculous, I'm sorry this is ridiculous. I've asked the FCC to respond to my e-mails countless times and no response. If they can't repond to my e-mails such a simple thing no wonder it's taking them over a year and forty some days to approve this merger. I would like my congressman and represenatives that receive this e-mail to look at this situation closely because something stinks about this whole deal and I want to see some action taken enough talking.

Sincerely,

Ronald Strickler
