Re: MB Docket No. 04-233 -- Comments In Response to Localism Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

Dear Sir/Madame:

It is a frightening day in America when citizen's freedoms are threatened by foreign enemies. It is deplorable when those threats originate within our borders by the very people entrusted to protect our rights as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States of America.

The propositions asserted by the FCC are a clear violation of an American's right to free speech and the right to free exercise of religion. It is easy to recognize that these proposals are designed to "bind and gag" American voices that adhere to the rights as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States of America. You will find my objections to these proposals attached hereto.

The First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America says:

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

As a free citizen of the United States of America, it is your duty to support and defend the Constitution and the laws of America against all enemies, foreign and domestic. I expect that you will act accordingly.

Sincerely,

Robin Johnston
