

I would strongly recommend that you do nothing to change the FCC ruling that would change our Christian Radio Stations. KLOve radio is one of the most positive, uplifting and wonderful experiences in the Christian Ministry that I have ever been a part of. Please, think long and hard before you do anything that would change this.