

To Whom it may concern

I am writing to you to express my feeling about the thoughts of changing the rules for Christian radio stations. I am a listener of K-LOVE and this is the main station that I listen to. It is playing in my car to start my day and to finish my day. When I am down and feeling depressed, K-LOVE plays the right music to bring me back up. It is a station that helps everyone that hears it. If you change the rules, it could make some of these stations have to go off the air. This will leave all of the listeners with nothing to help them along the way. Please reconsider the thoughts of changing the rules. It has worked well so far, so why change it now. There is a saying that would fit this situation. It is "If it aint broke, don't fix it". Please leave this the way it is. It is working out fine and I don't want to lose a great Christian station.

Sincerely yours
