Dear FCC:

I am writing this email in hopes that you will allow the Sirius/XM merger. As a truck driver I spend 75% of my time away from home. The amenities that make life what it is today is often not available to me at a reasonable price. I pay $62 a month for mobile internet, $99 for a cell phone, and for just $13 a month I get a lot of channels via XM radio that keeps me in touch with current events, political views of both sides that helps me make up my own mind, after hearing ALL the facts. If there were a merger, I'd have access to even more, and time away from home would also go a little faster and I'd be happier with my entertainment choices.

Sincerely,

Michael Reed
