Dear Mr. Schumacher:

We would like to express our sincere appreciation for your diligent service to the residents of Tuscarawas County. You truly run a local station that broadcasting on local issues that keep us informed.

Your assistance along with other local media in our County was vital during the recent flooding. There could have been severe consequences if the residents were not informed of impending dangers.

Your coverage of the local landfill issues, project updates, and other important events show that you are responsive to our community needs.

Thank you for providing this public service to our County.

Sincerely,

Jim Seldenright
