

I am opposed to any of the measures the FCC is considering in it's attempt to censor Christian radio. I don't see the need or the legality to do so and will be contacting my state and federal representatives regarding this matter.