

Please keep the Christian radio station on air. They are doing God's work and we rather listen to them than the filth on the other radio stations. My family has been listening to K-Love radio station for years and some of the other ones too. So please keep the Christian Radio Stations on Air!