

Because KLOVE is a listener supported radio station, I think there should be limited interference by the government. If the FCC were to try to dictate what KLOVE could or could not play on the air, I would consider that government interference, so I am opposed to this proposed bill. I know my family is also opposed to this.