

Please do not restrict christian radio. This is the only type of radio I listen to. Only good,positive,and encouraging material is on these stations.The station I listen to is listener supported and further restrictions would make it hard for it to stay on the air.Please keep God on the air waves!