

I do not support the FCC's option of a proposal that would force every radio station to take programming advice from community advisory boards broadly representative of an area's population. This should be kept to the individual's of the station, and if a private station like, christian broadcasting, or secular, should only be run by them, and not a group of opposer's to their cause. Thank you.