

I protest their request for exemption. Our deaf and hard of hearing adult community has vastly expanded in The Villages and surrounding counties in the last several years thus a high demand for captions on local news service, weather news, and recreation information via VNN and their other channels.

Please deny the VNN TV's request for the exemption. It does not have any financial hardship at all.