

Christian radio is the one sure link I have as I live way up in the mountains. Church is 40 miles, one way, to attend, and with the price of fuel, we are limited as to the number of trips we take. Thus Christian radio is our link. Without it, I would be lost as main stream radio does not have the uplifting music so dear to me.