

I am very much opposed to the proposed regulations that are being considered by the FCC. These regs will have a detrimental effect, financially, on all Christian radio stations. These stations and programs are listener financed, and I'm sure that many will have to go off the air. An appointed board overseeing these stations is a direct violation of "free speech". Please take the many listeners' views into consideration and don't pass these regulations.