

We listen to Air1 radio at home and in our cars. We are a Christian family bringing up 3 children. There is not much on the radio or on TV that is healthy for children to listen to nor is it easy to find something appropriate for me as a parent to listen to. If you add the proposed regulations, we might lose something very important to our family.