

I believe that this ruling would be an infringement on our constitutional right to free speech. I believe that the FCC is overstepping the boundaries given to it by the public it is suppose to be serving.