

I am an 11 year old girl who does not want you to mess with my religious freedom or free speech. I love my christian radio station Air1. Please do not force them to have rules that won't let them talk about Jesus or living for what is right. I love the music and it helps me feel good about myself and be nice to others. Thank you.