

I oppose regulations that curtail the free speech on Christian Radio through these regulations that place unnecessary regulation on those stations. The need for local representatives implies that the Christian message is inappropriate communication for some localities. This violates guaranteed free-speech rights.