

I believe you should not make changes to Christian Radio. Freedom of speech will be compromised. Forcing smaller radio stations to maintain staff at all times while on the air will put some off the air.