

To Whom It May Concern: I would like to request that the public airways be left as they are. We totally support Christian radio, and it should not be left to those that are not of the Christian faith to dictate what can be broadcast; if the radio station is willing to broadcast various programming, there is no reason to have various boards to negate any of their decisions. Therefore, I protest against any such regulation.