

We oppose the proposed change in ruling, FCC 04-233. Local radio stations do not need this proposed change of advisory board mandated supervision. We have the choice to listen or change the station or turn it off! The stations we listen to have a good balance of programming and serve our community with local updates and emergency information, as well as providing music and commentaries that we agree with.