Dear KKKY Extreme Teams,

As I sit and attempt to express how I feel about this amazing experience, I find it so difficult to express... but here goes.

What began as an effort with a teacher and 13 students in the fall has culminated into something way beyond us! We are honored and humbled by your generosity, determination, and hard work AND ability to solicit donations!! ☺ This experience has taught us many things, mainly that people are wonderful. My students will also never forget this and many are dreaming of ways to leave their mark in the world according to their abilities.

When school starts, I will film the kids in their new "lign" and you will see and feel the joy!

It was great to meet all of you. God Bless you all ~ You definitely make a difference at Riverside!

Dear Mr. Pederson,

Are there enough words to express our attitude? Absolutely NOT!

The praise we have heard from others regarding "show, you prepared the audience for Beck's reactions or "lack" of reaction to the Extreme Team-Makeover, has been positive. We share in that reaction.

Thank you for the Awareness (your "Teach" @ KXLY) that you have exposed Spokane & the Inland Empire to in regard to Autism.

The "Home" is terrific & we all love it!

Sincerely, Renee Hockenberry!

We really appreciated your efforts and earnest participation in the Open House at Joe Albi Stadium on August 11th. Although we had a late start in advertising and were up against three other exciting events, we did get about 120 people who were very interested in the stadium and the Sports Complex plan.

The sports stations set up by the Skyhawks were awesome!
Thanks to every one of you young people!

Thanks to SYSA, Skyhawks, Hillyard Kiwanis, Centerplate, Clearwater Music, Belton Racing, Councilman Crow, the City of Spokane and the Parks and Recreation Department!

Most Sincerely,

Jim Albi and Paul Hyndman

Many thanks from Joe Fan!

Mark,

Congratulations on receiving one of this year's Special Recognition Awards. I know you're extremely busy with work, family, & other charitable causes, but you always seem to make time & a place in your heart for the Guilds' School.

We sincerely appreciate all you do for our Auction of Penny Fun.
Thank you Mark!! Jim Chin

Hello,

I want to thank KXLY for the segments which aired today on Good Morning Northwest related to the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure and the various events and related programs that we support. The programs and research that the Komen RFTC supports are so important, and the support of businesses like yours make such a difference in raising awareness and funds for the cause. The only thing that would have made it better would have been to see Mark Peterson get a mammogram!

I serve on the Komen race committee here in Spokane, and felt that it was important for us to acknowledge your efforts in promoting our event and locally supported breast cancer health programs. Thank you so much.

Jeff,

Again let me thank you and KXLY TV for allowing you to be the moderator for our candidate forum. We have received so many positive comments from candidates and citizens about what a great job you did, and your professional attitude and humor were appreciated.

I do owe you an apology though.....my assistant had some technical problems with the beginning of the broadcast and it ran the first day without your beginning comments. I was able to recover the audio, but unfortunately she did not have you on camera at the beginning (panic set in I guess) so I have edited the broadcast to include your beginning comments (I thoroughly enjoyed how you talked about the candidates not being professional politicians and being friends and neighbors.)

To make a long sad story short - there was a glitch. It has been corrected - and you have my thanks and appreciation. k

Subject: Classified: Clothes For Teens

Teen Closet is the kxly4 Extreme Team Project next week!

Teen Closet is based on a similar project that was started in Florida. The Closet is going to be a store that has higher end and name brand clothing (Gap, Lucky Brand, BCBG, Levis, Ralph Lauren, etc.) for boys and girls who are in the Foster Care System.

Each teen will be able to shop at the Closet free of charge but to make that happen we need your help. As we get this off the ground the hardest part is stocking the shelves with the clothing while the community is still learning about this new addition to Spokane County.

If you or your teens have any new or barely worn clothing that you are willing donate (and honestly believe teenagers would wear it) we would love to have it to help get this program off the ground.

Greenacres Drycleaning has donated their services to us so all clothes will be cleaned before going to the shelves. Anything you have can be dropped off at either Robyn or Andrea's desks in the Newsroom. We are hoping to have donations dropped off to us by Monday evening at the latest so there is time to get it cleaned.

If you aren't able to donate now, or already cleaned out your closet for the fall, don't worry. We will be getting donation sites set up around the area.

Thanks for your generosity and please, spread the word about this new non-profit. You can read more at www.myspace.com/teencloset and we will have another site with our major sponsors up by Extreme Team time. If you have any questions about anything please let us know.

Thanks,
Robyn Nance & Andrea Flatley

Dear Pete,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule and helping me with my senior project. What you had to say really explained what I am interested in and motivated me to learn more about music production and audio engineering.

The tour of KXLY and the studios inside gave me a closer look at what's done in the industry. Seeing the environment showed me the process of working with sound. I enjoyed walking through the radio stations and studios while people were at work. I was able to see, in person, what is done. The talk about equalizing and examples you showed helped me to incorporate in some of my beats and instrumentals to sound better.

You explained everything thoroughly and answered a lot of my questions to where I could understand. It's helped me very much. Again, thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Hello,

On behalf of the Wishing Star Foundation I would like to thank you for your in-kind donation of editing our Send A Friend A Goat commercial and eight DVD's at a value of $320. This event raised over $22,000 for our mission.

Donations of time, talent and treasures from people like you are allowing us to expand our services to families and children. We are in the process of serving our 1070th wish family.

Wishing Star is celebrating 24 years of putting smiles on the faces of families and children. I believe that what we do best is provide joyful living in the moment for families suffering through the adversity of illnesses. These joyful moments create wonderful memories that live on forever. What would our lives be like without happy memories?

Recently a group of students from a statistics class at Eastern Washington University created a phone survey to attempt to quantify our "special medicine." They tabulated their results finding that most parents believed their children's health/outlook was improved once they knew they would be granted a wish. Perhaps laughter is one of the best medical interventions for children struggling with life-threatening illnesses.

Thank you again for donating to our mission. Our Federal Tax Identification Number is 94-3163746. Our organization is exempt under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Dear Laura Branning:

We gratefully acknowledge KXLY Broadcast Group for its donation to the March of Dimes Vine, Stein, and Dine Auction:

Item Donated: KXLY Broadcast Group Gift Basket
Donated Value: $100

The event was held on May 18th and it was a tremendous success, made even more so by your participation. Your donation will help the March of Dimes support critical research to find the causes of premature birth, educate health professionals about new techniques and treatments available to care for sick babies, and support community-based programs to help prevent prematurity, birth defects and infant death.

Thank you for your wonderful support to improve the health of Washington's mothers and babies.

Dear Wendy:

We would like to thank you for your contribution to making our Dress for Success Suit Drive a success! With your help, OfficeTeam and Accountemps, divisions of Robert Half International, were able to donate 486 pieces of clothing, and shoes, to Our Sister's Closet, women's professional clothing bank located at our local YWCA organization.

Our Sister's Closet furnishes professional, interview-appropriate clothing for low-income women seeking gainful employment and domestic violence victims making court appearances. During one-hour appointments, clients select-at no cost-two outfits suitable for job interviews. Once clients secure employment, they are encouraged to return for additional clothing to carry them through their first months of work.

Robert Half International and Dress for Success have worked together on a variety of workforce-development opportunities since 2002. We are their industry-exclusive staffing sponsor, and support national fundraising events and conferences. We also provide skills-development training in selected markets.

On behalf of our entire staff, thank you for your contribution!
