Dear Sharleen:

Thank you for taking time out of your schedule to organize and share KXLY Radio and TV with our 8th Grade students. The extensive and comprehensive tour of your facilities surpassed my expectations. The comments from the students and Shelley Moffit were extremely positive. They had fun and learned a lot; I wish I could have been there.

I thank you so very much and hope you will be a part of our Career Day again next year.

Sincerely,

Becky Smallfoot

Dear Jill and Ken:

Thank you so much for each of your parts in making my interview a success. I appreciate the hard work on both of your parts. I also wanted to Thank Ken for making time in his busy schedule to talk to me, as well as Jill for making the whole interview possible. Between both of you, you guys made the whole experience something I will never forget.

Once again, thank you very much.

Having the Vice President of the United States take the time and visit our city is a tremendous honor and I would like to take the time and thank the staff and news people for doing a great job covering this event. I don't get off work until five so I missed the live coverage at Fairchild therefore I was very please when KXLY chose to broadcast the Vice Presidents speech at the Davenport live. I find it very disappointing that other local news station elected to keep to their regular schedules and when they did broadcast, the visit by the Vice President wasn't their top story. Karina Shagren did an excellent job, her enthusiasm for the whole event shined through in her reporting, thank you Karina. Malissa Luck along with the cameraman did a first-rate job report from outside the Davenport with all the protesters and others wanting to get their face and advertisement on the air. Again thank you KXLY for recognizing the visit by the Vice President as news worthy and an event that the citizens of Spokane should be proud.

Sincerely,
Margaret Gwinn

Are their enough words to express our gratitude? Absolutely NOT!

The praise we have heard from others regarding how you prepared the audience for Brock's reactions or "lack" of reaction to the Extreme Team Makeover, has been positive. We share in that reaction.

Thank you for the Awareness (your "Team" @ KXLV) that you have exposed Spokane & the Inland Empire to us regard to Autism.

The "Home" is terrific & we all love it!

Dear Julie,

I just wanted to take a moment to sincerely congratulate KXLY's huge success on the Ultimate Yard Makeover.

On behalf of everyone here at R&D Construction I would like to express my gratitude at being included in this great community project.

This was our first experience with the Ultimate Yard Makeover. I couldn't help but be impressed with your company and the makeover team, and how everyone came together to get the job done both beautifully and efficiently.

I was also very impressed with the attention that this program has gained within the community. Your commitment to the Spokane area and this Makeover has made me proud to be associated with your company. It was a real privilege.

Thanks again for including us to be a part of your team! We look forward to working on additional projects with your company in the future.

Best regards,

Dear Jill,

I would like to thank you for taking the time out of your schedule and helping me with the opportunity to meet with Pete Jenson. I enjoyed the visit and it helped me with my senior project.

The tour of KXLY was very insightful and it motivated me to pursue more. I was given a lot of information that will help me in the future.

Again I would like to thank you for assisting me with this opportunity.

Dear Friends of the YWCA:

Thank you for your donation of $1250 in support of the Women of Achievement Benefit Luncheon on 5/18/2007. With your generous support the YWCA of Spokane raised more than $110,000 to support the unduplicated programs and services we provide.

Please know that your caring gift greatly benefits the disadvantaged and often overlooked residents of Spokane County and the surrounding areas. Counted among these are women and children who, with the assistance of our Alternatives to Domestic Violence Program, are striving to lift themselves out of the fear and horror of domestic violence. Children and families who struggle with homelessness and poverty receive help through the services of the Homeless Education and Resource Team at the YWCA. Our Child and Family Care Program teaches young parents the essential skills they need for positive parenting. The Opportunity Center empowers women to believe in themselves and their capacity to find new rewards in work, through career training and assistance in forming life and career goals.

Your contribution demonstrates your commitment to lifting up your fellow community members. On behalf of all those we serve, I would like to thank you for joining in our mission to develop individual potential, combat oppression and promote self-empowerment.

Mark your calendar for the 25th annual Women of Achievement Luncheon on October 9, 2007.

My deepest gratitude for your kind support.

Sincerely,

According to section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the YWCA of Spokane is exempt from federal income tax. Thus, your gift is considered tax deductible. For reporting purposes, it should be known that if you attended the luncheon, $20 of the donation goes to the cost of the meal and therefore is not tax deductible. Keep this document for your records.

KLY & Wendy,

I wanted to be sure to say thank you for the wonderful basket you put together for the Domestic Violence Shelter Fundraiser. We appreciate it very much.

Dear Wendy;

Thank you for KXLY's sponsorship of the Youth Leadership Spokane Class of 2008's Servant Leadership Day and for KXLY's generous contribution to Youth Leadership Spokane in the amount of $325.

Your underwriting support of Youth Leadership Spokane is instrumental in providing a cadre of capable, informed and effective leaders for our city. The Youth Leadership program especially relies on the generous investment of donors. Graduates from both the adult and youth programs are active leaders in business, in our neighborhoods, in the arts, in politics and in human services.

Your partnership and investment in Youth Leadership Spokane ensures a healthy, vital and thriving future for Spokane.

Jeff,

Again let me thank you and KXLY TV for allowing you to be the moderator for our candidate forum. We have received so many positive comments from candidates and citizens about what a great job you did, and your professional attitude and humor were appreciated.

I do owe you an apology though.....my assistant had some technical problems with the beginning of the broadcast and it ran the first day without your beginning comments. I was able to recover the audio, but unfortunately she did not have you on camera at the beginning (panic set in I guess) so I have edited the broadcast to include your beginning comments (I thoroughly enjoyed how you talked about the candidates not being professional politicians and being friends and neighbors.)

To make a long sad story short - there was a glitch. It has been corrected - and you have my thanks and appreciation. k

Greetings!

My husband and I want to congratulate KXLY for having two outstanding employees who are worthy of praise!

On Monday, January 29th, our home was the scene of a demonstration for tips on water conservation by the City of Spokane and spokeswoman Chelsea Wood.

Kirk Hawkins reported and Jerry Swanson manned the cameras. They arrived at 4:30 a.m. to do the morning newscast snippets, and were absolutely delightful to work with! You can be proud of these two skilled, professional, and friendly people. They should be commended for doing a superior job and representing the high caliber of employees at KXLY!

Thanks so much - it was a great experience for us!
