Dear Leona -

I want to complement the reporting team of Derek Sciba and Daniel Stothman that did the live shot of our property yesterday. They were very professional and enthusiastic about a subject that could be a little dull.

We really appreciate your promoting the property and wanted to let you know what a great job the group did. Sincerely-

Dear Mr. Paul:

Thank you for your on-going support of the Eastern Washington University "Teacher of the Month" program. Your public service announcements are invaluable to us. They continue to generate increased interest in the nomination process and in greater awareness of quality teaching throughout the region.

For your follow-up announcements and newscasts, specific information regarding the latest selectee is given on the enclosed Fact Sheet.

Mention of your stations' participation was made at the award ceremony. Additional credit recognizing your support is also given in other program publicity materials.

Please continue to air our "Teacher of the Month" PSA's as frequently as possible. It is through such announcements that each month's nominations are generated. We appreciate and depend on your support to promote community awareness of this special recognition program.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Clewett

Subject: Girl Scout Skate Night

Our Service Unit, Girl Scouts and families would like to thank you for your generous donations towards our Girl Scout Skate Night.

The girls and their families had a great time and were very surprised when we started giving away prizes. That has never been a part of our skate night. So this was a wonderful treat.

Our girls spend a large portion of their year raising monies to support their troops and charitable businesses of their choice and we're very proud of them. This was a nice way to show them our appreciation for all their hard work.

Our skate night was a big success and we appreciate your participation and support.

SPOKANE COUNTY DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CONSORTIUM

A Coordinated Community Response to Intimate Partner Violence

December 29, 2004

KXLY TV

Attn: Kirstin Votava

500 W Boone

Spokane WA 99201

Dear Ms. Votava:

On behalf of the membership, Board of Directors and staff, I would like to thank you for your generous support of the Spokane County Domestic Violence Consortium at our November 6, 2004 "Autumn Elegance" Dinner and Auction held at the Davenport Hotel.

Your support resulted in us netting $31,000 to fund the Consortium's mission to end intimate partner (domestic) violence. This funding is critical in these times of financial hardship and uncertainty and will enable us to maintain all of our core services and programs, as well as to launch some new community outreach efforts in 2005. In the coming year, we will protect and entertain nearly 1,200 children in our courthouse Children's Waiting Room program, provide prevention education, training and technical assistance to greater than 50 area businesses and their 5,000+ employees on intimate partner violence in the workplace, offer professional training on model abuser treatment programs and parenting issues, and provide education through our Healthy Relationships Outreach and Education Program to area elementary, middle and high school students to instill important values and education to break the intergenerational cycle of violence.

According to our records, you donated a pair of tickets to a 2005 Mariner's game valued at $76. We will begin planning our 2005 "Autumn Elegance" soon and look forward to working with you again. Next year's event will be held on Saturday, November 5, 2005 at the Davenport Hotel once again. We will be sending out event response sheets this spring, and hope that you will again consider donating an item or service to our auction.

Thank you again for doing your part to end the cycle of intimate partner violence in the Spokane community.

Sincerely,

SPOKANE COUNTY DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CONSORTIUM

Subject: 737th Coming home!

Mr. Patrick Preston,

This e-mail was just going to be a "Thank you" but I am happy to say this e-mail is more than just that. It was February 12th 2004 that you and your News Team gave my children and I the opportunity to talk with my husband via satellite from Kuwait. I will never forget how special that moment was, Thank you again. You may have heard that the 737th Transportation Unit is scheduled to return to Fort Lewis this Saturday, mission complete! It has been a challenging year but with God's grace and mercy we have made it through. For my husband, PFC Whitsett and I this past year will only add one more story to our testimony. I am so proud of my husband! The strength and courage he displays has seeped and shined through in our children. There is one example I want to share with you so you can see more than just the Soldier. There have been many times when we come home my husband goes in the house to let us in through the garage. As he would open the garage door he'd start to do an old school (the Robot, Moon Walk, some bad 1980's thang) dance. I would turn the music up in the van and flash the lights as the children yelled "Go Daddy, Go Daddy". During those times we knew our life was perfect even if the neighbors thought we were crazy. This past fall the kids and I were pulling into our driveway and my oldest son, Marquise(9) got out to go through the house and open the garage. When he lifted the door he started to dance just like his dad. Through tears I turned up the music, the kids yelled "Go Q, Go Q"! He turned his back to us, looked over his shoulder and winked at me. I know this may mean nothing to some but if we all could just realize it's not about the cars we drive or our house address that gives us a name or a positive memory in someone's mind. It's the love and time we spend giving of ourselves that will never be forgotten. Tomorrow is not promised! This was just one of the many wonderful memories over this emotionally exhausting year. From the man in the post office who slipped me a ten dollar bill to help with my husband's box, to the family over in Seattle we have never met that sent us a large check for gifts for the kids at Christmas, to you... the News Reporter, Mr. Patrick Preston for putting yourself in harms way to get to a story that would help us feel a little closer to our husband's, fathers, brothers and son... Thank you again! Our memory of this past year will forever include you.

God bless you Patrick!

With Sincere Thanks,

Kari Whitsett(PFC James S. Whitsett's wife), Tanisha, Marquise, Jimani and Zaraih

Dear Gina and Crystal,

We were very grateful for your part in KXLY's generous gift to the homeless last month. Having the opportunity to present the story to the Spokane community made the experience even better, and I want to thank you both for helping make the event happen.

We're always eager to get the message out that we serve hundreds of thousands of meals to hungry men, women, and children each year, all with the help of the generous people of the Inland Northwest. It was incredible for the Mission to receive close to $1000 in gift certificates from KXLY to help make those meals possible this year. Our kitchen managers had a great time spending the certificates on items that will make their menus more varied, interesting, and nutritious. They truly felt like kids in a candy store!

That was a special occasion for our shelters, and I'm thankful for your participation. God bless you both.

Dear Kirstin:

On behalf of the staff, children and families we serve we would like to thank you and acknowledge you for your involvement with the Crisis Nursery. Enclosed is a certificate of appreciation to thank you for your ongoing support of the important work we are doing.

Thanks to people like you we just celebrated our 18th Anniversary of the Crisis Nursery, which opened in 1987 to provide a safe haven for children who are at risk of being abused or neglected. Over 40,000 children have found comfort, security, warmth and love within our walls.

On July 16, 2005 we will be having an open house here at the Nursery. If you have never had an opportunity to see our beautiful facility, please come for a tour.

Thank you again for assisting us in fulfilling our mission "to provide immediate refuge for children and support to strengthen families."

Dear Mark,

Please accept the thanks and appreciation of the SIDS Foundation of Washington, Eastern Washington Branch Office, for donating your expertise and your time at our Bowl-a-Thon event on Saturday, February 19th, 2005. Your generosity helped to make the Bowl-a-Thon a great success. The total raised for the SIDS Foundation of Washington was $1,282.00. We had a total of 59 bowlers including you and your son. It was a fun day for all involved.

The funds earned from this event will be used to support the SIDS parents and families by providing literature, grief support groups and research. It is the hope of all of us that one day they will find a cause and cure for Sudden Infant Death Syndrome and no family will have to suffer the loss of their precious infant.

Thank you again for your continued support.

Dear Steve:

On behalf of the Community Colleges of Spokane (CCS) trustees, administrators, faculty, foundation volunteers and especially of our students, we thank you for the pledge payment of $2,500 to be applied to the SCC Center for the Humanities Endowment fund. All proceeds will be used to match a National Endowment for the Humanities grant.

Your support and involvement enables the CCS Foundation to fulfill its mission of providing the colleges with the ability to respond to specific student, faculty/staff, and community priorities that cannot be addressed through existing institutional resources.

The SCC Center for the Humanities Endowment fund will strengthen and improve the humanities at Spokane Community College in two innovative ways. It will provide a perpetual source of funds to:

- ☞ Create and sustain a Center for the Humanities housed in the Learning Resource Center on the SCC Campus;
- ☞ Augment and build the learning resource collections and databases to support excellence in teaching at SCC.

Through your donation to CCS, we will be able to provide students with current resources they need in order to make changes in their lives through education. With your help, Community Colleges of Spokane will continue to improve educational opportunities for Spokane area students.

Dear Steve,

I wanted to take the time to say how much we want to thank you and the entire KXLY team for making the initial on sale for LION KING so successful.

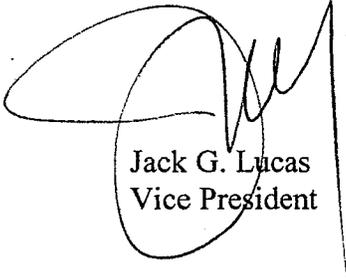

I was so impressed by the professionalism and dedication that the entire KXLY team exhibited on Saturday (May 21, 2005). Without a doubt your team contributed to any success we will have with the 6 week run of LION KING. We could not have done it without your team being involved.

Major kudos goes to Gina Mauro, Kirstin Votava, Debra Reed, and Debbie Sieverding. The coordination of all of the components of this event and the incredible amount of details that had to be completed were done with significant professionalism and dedication.

Also, kudos to Susanna Baylon and Mark Peterson, and all of the other dedicated professionals that work on Good Morning Northwest. Their efforts did not go unnoticed and we owe them a great deal of thanks.

Sometimes we take these things as "normal", "run of the course", "this is the way it should be", but we all know that it takes dedicated individuals that believe in the vision and the goals of the project. Truly your team was an inspiration for those beliefs.

Thanks again to you and your team,

Jack G. Lucas
