

I oppose any restriction that would make Christian radio subject to federal legislation as to its content. I will continue to oppose any such law or legislation, with all legal means necessary. I pray to God that the FCC will listen favorably to my comments, and I pray any such restrictions be cursed by God and all such legislators opposed by god with great prejudice.

Amen.