

In order to be brief, I have condensed comments regarding KLOVE, Air 1, and KFAX. All three stations provide the following:

1. non-violent programming
2. teaching that endorses traditional values
3. a profanity-free site
4. music that contains a message of brotherhood, acceptance, and encouragement
5. programming that is appropriate for all ages. Parents do not need to censor young listeners.
6. community service announcements including information for parenting classes, financial planning, free events and concerts open to the entire community
7. local weather and traffic
8. positive new stories that encourage listeners
9. referrals to and avenues of support for homeless shelters and food banks
10. prayer support, regardless of religion
11. family oriented activities

KLOVE and AIR 1 also provide alternative music that meet the above standards in non-violence, appropriate lyrics and values.
