

I am opposed to any rules or regulations which may affect Christian Radio Broadcasting. It's one of the few positive things here in a city with an extremely high crime and murder rate. It is vital to my children and I. I don't have to worry about them hearing inappropriate things and it helps people in unimaginable ways on a daily basis. God bless you.