

Re: Docket #04-233 Christian Radio Dear Sir or Madam, I just received this and realize I'm late but wish to make a statement regardless. According to the U.S. Constitution, we have the right to freedom of speech, expression, and freedom of religion. If the press, with their biased, one sided opinions are allowed to state them via newspaper, internet, radio and tv, then we as Americans have that same right and freedom. This is still a democracy, founded on "In God We Trust." Let's "fight the good fight of faith," to keep it that way. Respectfully, Linda Bejarano
